

Celebration of Women's History Month

Mother Earth and the New World by Blanca Santander

The Ambassador of Peru
Luis M. Valdivieso
and Mrs. Cecilia Valdivieso

Cordially invites you to a Special evening to celebrate the achievements of women both around the globe and locally

Wednesday, March 31, 2010
5:30 to 7:30 pm
1700 Massachusetts Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20036

The event will feature Marie Arana, Writer at Large for the Washington Post and Kluge Distinguished Scholar at the Library of Congress. Ms. Arana is the author of the Award-winning memoir American Chica: Two Worlds, One Childhood, as well as the novels, Cellophane and Lima Nights. Marie Arana will share insights into her writings, work and experiences growing up and living bicultural in the United States and facing cultural integration in a different continent.

Reception will follow the presentation